(During this section of the music everyone begins to speak among themselves, trying to make out what they've seen and heard. It nears confusion level until...)

Something is wrong here I don't understand who is that stranger, who is this man?
Why are we waiting let's take command,
He speaks to a demon, that speaks through a man!

that man is a priest, so we must take care!
Beside he's done good, we saw it right there, there's nothing left for us to do so why should we care?
